Summary

George F. White are delighted to present this self-build opportunity for the construction of a detached dwelling as part of an exclusive permission for 2 detached dwellings with garages in the rural village of Whashton, Richmond.

The boundary line separating the plots is currently indicative and has been marked from the existing field gate, and can be minorly adjusted for access requirements should this be requested by a purchaser.

The Area

Located just a few miles away from the vibrant and historic market town of Richmond, Whashton is a peaceful village nestled right in the rolling hills of North Yorkshire.

The property has good access into the surrounding scenery including the Yorkshire Dales National Park and is in easy reach, being just a few miles drive from both the A1 and A66.

Planning

Outline planning permission was granted for up to two detached dwellings with garages by North Yorkshire Council on 23rd February 2023. Application documents can be seen within the Planning folder in the Data Room. The full application can be seen at reference number:

22/00689/OUT

A subsequent reserved matters application for all matters will need to be submitted within three years of the grant of outline planning permission.

Access

The site is currently accessed via a field gate on Hagg Lane. As part of the development, there is the option to upgrade this access point or to create a new one.

Services

Purchasers are recommended to seek independent advice as to the availability, suitability of existing and cost of connection of services to meet their requirements.

Tenure & Possession

The site is offered for sale as freehold with vacant possession upon completion.
