Location

Situated in the village of Edern, approximately 1.75 miles from Nefyn. It lies within the Llyn Peninsula, which is a popular location for tourism, with the Area of Outstanding National Beauty and numerous popular beaches including Traeth Nefyn, Traeth Portar, Traeth Penllech, Nant Gwrtheyrn and Trefor Beach, as well as Nefyn Golf Club famous for the eight holes played on the world-famous "Point" set high on the sea cliffs of the narrow peninsula overlooking Porthdinllaen bay.

The property has potential to draw trade from across the area, with Abersoch within 7.25 miles, Pwllheli 6.5 miles and Criccieth 14 miles.

Description

The property comprises two elements. At the front of the site is the public house building and at the rear is a separate detached two storey building comprising storage and a 3 bedroom managers flat.

Internally, the property is fitted out with dining seating to the higher level and bar seating to the lower level. There is a combination of slate and carpet covered floors, painted walls and spotlights. There is also the main bar area, with access behind to the cellars. There are male and female WCs to the ground floor. On the upper floor, there is a large catering kitchen, fitted with stainless steel units and cookers, fridges, freezers and shelving. There is a further room for preparation and pot washing, food stores, walk in fridge and freezer, a small staff room and a manager’s office.

The property has an area to the side, formerly a car park that has been converted to a pub garden with fixed shed units, all of which have heating and electricity/lighting. In the central area, there is seating on a gravelled courtyard and an outdoor covered bar area, constructed of timber and with stores to the back. There is also an outdoor kitchen and WCs.
